Month in Review:

- ★ Tim has been let go.
- ★ The library met with Raise Me To Read and will be working with them to get books into the homes of our families. They also have a lot of cool resources we're excited to share with parents and guardians of young children that combine parenting tips and resources with nursery rhymes and fairy tales so that both benefit.
- ★ Monster Making was very successful there was a lot of engagement with the kids.
- ★ We had a decent turnout for the National Youth Poet Laureate. She was a phenomenal speaker.
- ★ The Library and Community Center threw a joint Community Halloween Party that had over 100 people in attendance. The majority of them were families.
- ★ Sweet Street was a HUGE success. The library made a haunted house in the two meeting rooms, and we clocked 504 people who went through.
- ★ Tiffany is working with AARP to bring tax assistance to our elderly community. It will be a free service for them. Volunteers are needed, and there has already been a lot of interest and few sign-ups within the community.
- ★ Iowa West wants to partner with the library by connecting us with outside organizations to provide different resources and services to our community.
- ★ Meggie was accepted into the Dyslexia program and will start taking classes near the end of November.
